

Children's Choir — Celebrating 50 years

The history of Children's Music at Trinity began 50 years ago when Mrs. Nancy Eason would take the first little group of children to the Associational Youth Rallies to sing.

In 1997 Mrs. Lynn Brant started a Children's Choir Ministry with the help of Mrs. Faye Glisson. Over the years there have been many ladies who have volunteered to help with the choir from time to time. Mrs. Lynn and Mrs. Faye and their choirs have presented many programs through the years for Christmas and in the spring. This is always a fun time for the children as well as a great blessing to those who attend.

At the present time they are planning another special musical. If you have a child or grandchild in grades 1-6 who is not already involved in the choir, please consider bringing them to participate. The choir meets on Wednesday evenings from 6:15-7:00 in room 100.

Music is a great way for children to learn to sing in a group and work with one another to present wonderful programs. We thank Mrs. Lynn and Mrs. Faye for the time and effort they put forth to make our Children's Music Ministry such a great success and enjoyable time for the children.

We are excited to be working on our upcoming spring musical!

Kids in grades 1-6 are welcome to join us on Wednesdays at 6:15 p.m. in room 100 to be a part of the Children's Choir!
